CARR ASKS PEACE AMONG DEMOCRATS

Intends to Give Kelly Committee Members Chance to Change.

William E. Carr, chairman of the Dual Central Democratic Committee of the District, places peace and harmony above all else as an essential factor in the Democratic primaries, which are to be held in the next few weeks.

Mr. Carr thinks that his associate have been unjustly treated by members of the Kelly committee, some of whom, he claims, now hold seats that belong rightfully to members of his committee. He says that a request was made to the Kelly committee asking that he and

"This request was denied by the comsaid Mr. Carr, last night, seven of the persons whose votes were recorded against granting the request were occupying seats to which they not entitled, having been placed there without notice to us.

"It is our purpose to call a meeting of the Central Democratic Committee, and to invite all the members of the Kelly committee who do not occupy seats be longing to us to take the places on the committee that rightly belong to them.

"We are in favor of pure politics, a fair election, and an honest count Whether we win or lose we shall not complain, as we shall then know that the people we represent have had their

Mr. Carr was asked if his committe was ready now in the interest of har-mony to treat with Mr. Kelly and his committee with a view to reaching a compromise, and he declared that his committee was ready and willing to treat with Mr. Kelly.

CONVICTED ARMY MAN TAKEN TO INSANE WARD

from Leavenworth, Kan., notification of the removal of Lieut. Allan Lefort from the military prison to the Government Hospital for the Insane.

Lefort was recently convicted by court-martial at Fort Jay, N. Y., of forgery and obtaining money under false pretenses. The military authorities did not atach any importance to the suggestion made that he was not mentally responsible, but his present condition seems to bear it out. Since his removal to the hospital he is said to have become violently insane.

FAIRBANKS' IDEA IS FINDING FAVOR

Special Session After Election Has Several Advantages.

The proposition first advanced by Vice President Fairbanks that a special sesion of Congress to consider the revision of the tariff should be called to eet immediately after the Presidential lection instead of waiting until after he new President is sworn in next March, is being received with some favor among his Republican colleagues, though probably not sufficient to carry the plan into effect. The point which appeals to them especially in relation to this plan is that would enable Congress to have at least a four months' discussion of the subject during the winter, whereas, otherwise, the tariff debate would be and the Prince de Sagan, a cousin of skely to drag right through the hot cummer weather,

SHOT FROM FORT SUMTER PRESENTED TO MUSEUM

Dr. W. Hutson Ford has presented to ne National Museum a forty-pound canon ball fired from Fort Sumter at the ginning of the engagement, April 12, 61, which marked the opening of the vil war. In connection with the hisory of the shot, Dr. Ford says:

ory of the shot, Dr. Ford says:

"This cannon ball was fired by Major Anderson from Fort Sumter on the 12th of April, 1861. At the beginning of the fight Major Anderson devoted his attention to the floating battery which was moored in the cove at Sullivan's Island, near the western extremity, about a mile and a quarter from the fort. Three of his shots struck the battery and rebounded upon the sand bar, This is one of them."

A System by Which You Pay Little-at-a-Time, Yet Secure Better Values Than Your Cash Will Elsewhere.

How many people in the entire city of Washington pay cash for everything they buy? Or, on the other hand, how many establishments in the city of Washington operate their business on a strictly cash basis? You can count both classes on your fingers. We're doing business openly; we're treating everybody on an equal basis. We're not selecting our friends and their acquaintances and extending to them the privilege of paying as they desire—we're extending the same treatment to everybody. Credit with us is a business—only our kind of credit is different. We've made a success of our kind-because it had to be. We guarantee to sell you goods of better quality, better style, better workmanship; extend to you the opportunity to pay-as-you-please, and yet have our sales price lower than your cash will secure elsewhere.

We're doing it every day for others-why don't you investigate? Isn't there some other need for your cash today besides the clothes-buying? If there is, use your cash for this, and we'll give you better garments than you've ever bought before for less money than you've generally paid cash for-and let you pay us at your leisure. OUR CREDIT PLAN has become THE CREDIT PLAN of Washington. Everybody is talking about, and hundreds are using it. Already we're selling more clothing than three-fourths of the other outfitters in the city. There must be a reason. There is. It's the Clothing first; the Price, second, and the Credit Plan, third. Think it over!

We Expect You to Charge the Account When You Come Here. Credit Is Our Business, Not a Favor
